OHMER TATE WILL BE CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Political Bosses Fail in Effort to Check Tate's Entrance--Voters to Make Decision--Factions are Split and New Organization is the Result.

Greene County voters are to have the opportunity of selecting a candidate for sheriff. The Herald in our last issue vigorously opposed the plan of the bosses of the two Republican factions uniting to put Deputy John Baughn over without the public having a say. Almost immediately public sentiment crystallized in support of the suggestion that another candidate should be entered that the voters could make a choice, and not have this duty performed by the bosses. The Schmidt-Shoup faction set that on the surface would have them there at sword points and yet united on this one candidate.

It is with a degree of some satisfaction that the Herald can now name Ohmer Tate, former Cedarville, as being a candidate for sheriff at the primary. Mr. Tate will file his petition probably today, and his sponsors and signers on his petition will be members of the American Legion in Xenia. That factional politics has nothing to do with Mr. Tate's coming is proven by those on that petition, the officers of the Legion, the Auxiliary and Mr. Ben R. McClellan, of the Xenia post.

Conditions in the Sheriff's office have not been what they should be. They could not be improved with Baughn as sheriff and charged with the responsibility that would be placed upon him. The fact that what has been styled the reform faction, has exhausted its efforts to keep Mr. Tate off the ticket is all the proof necessary that he should have the united support of the public that believes in fair dealing and not dictation in politics as the bosses would force on you.

Mr. Tate is a young man with a clean record. His character has never been questioned. He has the endorsement of all who come in contact with him in his work on the Pennsylvania lines where he has been for a number of years. It is hardly necessary to say more of this time. He was formerly a resident of this township in his younger days and a former student of Cedarville College. Mr. Tate's candidacy will be welcomed by the voters of this section of the county and we predict for him a very cordial and liberal support at the polls next August.

Four years ago Sheriff Morris Sharp and Baughn made a vigorous fight against George Birch, who was the deputy then and a candidate. As the old precedent of recognizing a deputy had been broken, it is going to be hard to convince the public that what was "saucy for the goose then must be saucy for the gander" this year. Baughn dares bid for support on that issue, having had a part in campaign that set the new precedent in rejecting a deputy.

There promises to be a new line-up this year in party management, and it cannot come too soon. Both of the former factions are badly disrupted. The Marshall-Gowdy faction faces the worst breach and nothing more could be expected from the manner in which members of the committee have been treated. The Central Committee has never been called since the day it organized more than two years ago. An executive committee was named, and most of these members found themselves to be nothing more than mere figure-heads and asked to endorse most any kind of a deal that he also used his influence to have the parole granted Smith. The cry now among horsemen is that favoritism being practiced by someone in connection with these cases. The fellows that paid their fines have reason to be sore. The public has a greater reason to know what Prosecutor Marshall's recommendation was in the Smith case.

Charles K. Wolf, prominent farmer in Beaver Creek township, has again offered his name as a candidate for Congress in the Seventh Congressional District. Two years ago Mr. Wolf opposed Charles Brand, Republican, but in a district with nine strong Republican counties, Mr. Brand was an easy winner. Mr. Wolf might have a better chance at success by starting lower down and offering his name for the Democratic nomination for State Senator in this district. He would only have had five counties to campaign whereas he will have nine. The necessity for a good clean man, such as Mr. Wolf is, is as important in the Ohio Senate, where corruption has been rife for the past two years, as any demand could be pictured for his service in Washington.

There will be a number of candidates for county office before the primary that will not have opposition. R. D. Williamson will seek the usual second term and to date no one has signified any opposition to him. The same can be said for Herman Gavvey, who will be up for his second term. B. F. Thomas, who has been county recorder for a number of years, is to have opposition at this time. Hints have been given out that a former deputy in that office had considered being a candidate, but was not ready to announce. Harvey Elom, as clerk of court is expected to have a clear field, as no mention has been made of opposition from any source. The Prosecutorship is none to tempting to attorneys nowadays and will be left vacant for the present incumbent, J. C. Marshall.

Interest centers about the Senatorial contest over the state. Frank B. Willis will seek another term. For several weeks it has been reported that former Governor Harry L. Davis of Cleveland, would also enter. On the Democratic side Judge Florence Allen of the Supreme Court, will be a candidate. On the Republican side, J. C. Marshall, is a candidate.

There will be at least nine candidates for governor on the Republican ticket, good bad and indifferent. On the Democratic side two, Vic Donahy, seeking a third term, and A. P. Sandals. Speculation as to results at this time favor Donahy, who is making his usual campaign against the Ohio Utility Commission, which has been increasing phone, gas, and other rates, with out regard of the patrons.

In the Republican race the pole horse is Thad Brown, present secretary of State, who has the other candidates for governor lagging behind. Cooper probably is second but his connection with the Hynicka organization will not add to his strength. Mrs. Evalyne Snow and State Treasurer Day, are in the field but considerably handicapped. The Klan will have a candidate in Joe Siebler of Akron, who was a candidate two years ago. It does not make much difference who the other candidates are as they have little or no acquaintance, or a rightful claim for recognition for such an honor.

Former Lieutenant Governor, C. J. Brown, of Blanchester, has filed for secretary of state. Mr. Brown is a very successful business man and in the journalistic field owns a number of Ohio newspapers. He made a wide acquaintance during his service as Lieutenant Governor of Ohio and this will add to his prestige at the coming primary. Mr. Brown promises a business administration and that he would give full time to his official duties, placing at the disposal of the public his knowledge gained as a former state official and his legal and business experience.

There are three certain candidates for treasurer. Sheriff Morris Sharp will follow precedent set four years ago by the then sheriff, Lincoln Funderburg. Funderburg lost out in as much as the voters did not approve of a candidate taking over another office when he still had one. Miss Helen Dodds, daughter of the late John A. Dodds, for years ticket agent for the Pennsylvania railroad company in Xenia, has also filed. Miss Dodds has been a deputy in the treasurer's office for several years. J. F. Hutchinson, a farmer in Beaver Creek township is also a candidate, and there may be others before the closing hour for entries.

Editor Harry Rice announces as a candidate for Congress before the August primary on the Democratic ticket. His nomination means that he would meet Congressman Charles Brand in November, he of course is

COUNCIL ORDERS STREET LINES BE COLLECTED

Council had an executive meeting Monday night when the feature of the evening was the street improvement draw on the village bank account. The council reported the collection of $50 in fines for traffic violations. Member Ross reported a revaluation, who is liable for a square on Main street and the street was about as wide as the county road. The matter was taken up with the solicitor, Harry D. Rice, who advised council to make a survey and re-evaluate the corner posts as the records for the addition was placed in 1887. The O. L. Smith garage reported over the property line.

Forest Hurley, former deputy in the office of county recorder has filed for that office after serving several weeks. It has been noted about that Mr. Hurley had been seeking information from friends about Xenia relative to his entry for recorder. His father was the recorder of the county for many years.

There will be two candidates for county auditor, and probably three. R. O. Ward will be a candidate again as will George Eckerle. There have been reports circulated from many quarters that D. H. Barnes, who is to be relieved of his school job as a result of the Klan contest last fall, is considering entering for auditor. At this date he has not filed.

As the judicial ticket must be non-partisan the nominees at the primary cannot be guaranteed that he will not have opposition at the regular election at the November election. Judge R. L. Gowdy will seek a second term and has filed for the nomination. He will not have opposition at the primary so far as known. The race is open for entries until the closing time for the November election.

Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner for the last ten years will not seek that office again, and will retire at the conclusion of his present term of office the first of the coming year. Dr. Frank M. Chambliss, Xenia, has filed his declaration of candidacy for the nomination at the coming primary.

According to the Columbus papers Dr. R. S. Dines, Columbus, formerly a dentist here, has announced as a candidate for coroner in Franklin county at the August primary.

Mrs. Ed. Hamilton, who accompanied her daughter, to Indianapolis, for a week's visit, will return home Saturday.

Streets Given Bath In Oil Monday

The J. S. Tobitt Co., Wyoming, O., the lowest bidder for street oil, arrived Monday and completed oiling the streets in the one day. This same company has contracts with other towns in this section.

The oil necessarily smears up everything with which it comes in contact. It is ruinous to clothes and to carpets and rugs and disfigures the sidewalks--but it will lay the dust. It is to be hoped that within another year, or possibly two, that we can eliminate road oil. By improving the streets to a hard surface and using tarvia, it will not be necessary to oil. Tarvia will last about three years and it dries much quicker and is a greater aid towards improving the street. It will cost more but is worth more in that it will last three years, while oil is good only for about six months.

Tarvia cannot be put on streets that have been oiled.

Opening Philadelphia's Fair

Even though the late spring had prevented a completion of the big fair grounds, national, state and city officials were on hand to officially open the Sesqui-centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, May 31. Photo shows Mayor Kendrick, Secretary of State Kellogg and Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover opening the exercises.

Washington is all upset over the victory won by former Senator Smith W. Brookhart in the Iowa primary election Monday. His defeat of Senator Cummins, Republican regular, makes farm legislation the important topic in Congress from now on. Brookhart had been uneaten a few months ago in a Senatorial recount and this proved to be a good campaign theme with Iowa voters. Brookhart is regarded as a radical on economic questions. Farm conditions in the west had much to do with the victory.

W. L. CLEMANS, Cedarville, Ohio

If you should become totally disabled from disease or accident would it not be agreeable to you for a strong INSURANCE COMPANY to send you a check for $100 — every thirty days until you regain strength enough to go to work again even if such disability should continue for years and to pay you $200 per month while confined in a hospital?

Or suppose your disability is only partial and you receive a check for $40 per month for several months, while you are able to do part of your work.

We write this kind of insurance for the largest company of its kind in the world.

REMEMBER we loan you money on First Farm Mortgage in any amount from $2000 to $40,000 at 5% interest.

Excluding Materialism

"You want to sleep during the most beautiful part of the opera," said the wife. "I was not asleep," protested the husband. "I was listening enraptured and did not want the effect of the music spoiled by glimpses of an overweight soprano and a slightly bowlegged tenor." — Washington Star.

Not Penn's Idea

Robert Richards Escapes With Bruises

Robert Richards escaped what might have been a serious injury yesterday afternoon when he was run over by the front wheels of a paper mill trailer loaded with straw. Robert in company with a number of boys were east of town near the J. C. Townsley farm when they spied the paper mill tractor and trailers coming down the pike. Robert and Russell Clemons made an effort to get a ride and tried to climb in between the trailers. Robert tripped and fell and the front wheel of the last trailer passed over his right limb. He rolled to the center of the road to escape the rear wheel.

The lad was able to get up and walk and was taken into the Townsley home where first aid was given. He was brought home later and after examination it was found that the one bruise on his right limb above the knee with skin abrasions was all the damage he suffered.

Lester Armentrout was driving the tractor and did not know what had happened until he reached the paper mill yards. Another tractor with two trailers driven by Clarence Sparrow was some distance up the road but within a distance to see what happened.

RAIN OF MUD MONDAY SOILED MANY WASHINGS

Blue Monday was a reality when the usual wash was hung out to dry. A cloud appeared but little if any rain was noticed. Yet a few drops fell and with each drop was a circle of dust that had covered the particle of water. It is explained that from some section across a high wind that sucked up dust and this current was mixed with the current that had the rain.

Not only did the family washing suffer and find its way back to the tub but windows and automobiles were spotted with the same formation and gave every one a new thought as to what caused such a freak.

The section visited seemed to be from Dayton to London.

Nothing was ever better suited to party frocks than crisp, shining taffeta, and it gives a good account of itself in the pretty frock pictured. Taffeta makes the corded puffs used for trimming and satin ribbon provides the belt and flowers.
